Day by day

■ DAY 1

Edinburgh, Scotland / Embark Ship

Arrive in Edinburgh and transfer to the city center. Explore the city—known throughout time for its hill fort, now the iconic Edinburgh Castle—at your own pace before embarking the ship in the afternoon.

Meals included: dinner

◇ DAY 2

Aberdeen

Start off the day with a panoramic drive through “the Granite City” before exploring Aberdeenshire’s countryside. Choose to visit a local Highland cattle farm, where you’ll learn about its award-winning products and practices. Or dive into the complicated history of the Gordon Highlanders by visiting the local museum. Transfer back to the ship later this afternoon and enjoy an evening at sea, keeping an eye out for the resident group of bottlenose dolphins, as you head to the Shetland Islands.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 3

Shetland

Shetland is characterized by deep-seated cultural traditions and dramatic landscapes. Far north, and near enough to Norway that some residents speak Scottish with a Scandinavian accent, this 100-island archipelago has never been fully tamed by those who live here. Explore these rural islands with their mix of cliffside lighthouses, ancient ruins, windswept pastures and harbors that have been gathering the bounties of the sea for ages. Take in the cliffs of Noss’ large bird colony from the ship as you sail by.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 4

Orkney

Morning options in rugged Orkney include a visit to renowned Scapa Flow, one of the world’s great natural harbors and a key historical World War I and II site. Alternatively, discover the Stone Age megaliths of the Ring of Brodgar and the 5,000-year-old stone slab village of Skara Brae. This afternoon, take a walking tour of Kirkwall—Orkney’s capital and a showplace of ancient Viking history thanks to its proximity to Norway—and step inside the majestic St. Magnus Cathedral, a sandstone landmark that took three centuries to build.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 5

Outer Hebrides

As you sail along the northern coast of Scotland, admire the Outer Hebrides rising out of the North Atlantic. Conditions permitting, embark Zodiacs to land on the Isle of Lewis. There, visit the striking Callanish Standing Stones, a 5,000-year-old UNESCO World Heritage site that predates Stonehenge. Explore by foot across multiple sites that were used as locations for rituals for 2,000 years.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 6

Iona and Staffa, Inner Hebrides

Visit the sacred island of Iona and its 13th-century abbey, long revered as a Christian pilgrimage site and believed to be where the Book of Kells originated. Several Scottish kings, including the actual Macbeth, are buried in the royal graveyard here. This afternoon, explore uninhabited and windswept Staffa Island. Weather permitting, board Zodiacs and cruise through the dramatic Fingal’s Cave, land on the exposed beach and walk amongst the famed six-sided volcanic basalt columns and photograph the island’s puffin colony.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAYS 7-8

Wild West Coast of Ireland

Over the next two days, enjoy the windswept landscapes of the Dingle peninsula and surrounding islands. Get photo tips from a National Geographic Photography Expert as you sail past the uninhabited Blasket Islands, on which you’ll observe a wide array of birds, including storm petrels, shearwaters, terns and gulls. Keep an eye out for recently fledged jumping auks—still downy and unable to fly—as they make their way out to sea accompanied by their dads. You may also be able to spot pods of dolphins that call these waters home.

The exploration continues on land through the southern corner of Ireland with its cozy local pubs, cultural centers and country walks. Choose from a few options: delve into the heart of Irish culture, language and history at the Blasket visitor center, where you’ll learn about the islands’ 1953 evacuation; hit the road on one most scenic drives on Ireland’s west coast—part of the Atlantic Way; or set out on a hike boasting incredible views over Dingle’s bay and peninsula.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 9

Cobh

Arrive in this colorful port city on one of the world’s largest natural harbors, intimately tied to maritime history and the great Irish Emigration. Visit the Cobh Heritage Centre and learn about the momentous events that took place here—from the 1912 departure of the Titanic to the successful rescue of passengers from the torpedoed Lusitania and the millions of Irish who departed these shores in search of a better life. Immerse yourself in an afternoon of Irish traditions at a local hurling club: learn about and try your hand at hurling—an ancient Gaelic Irish team sport played with a wooden stick and a small ball—enjoy time at the clubhouse that doubles as a bar, listen to live Gaelic music and chat with locals.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 10

Isles of Scilly, England

The Isles of Scilly can trace its roots back to prehistoric times. More than 140 different islands make up this designated area of outstanding natural beauty. Take the time to explore one of England’s most pristine beaches and watch for migrating birds that frequent the islands. Weather permitting, enjoy a Zodiac ride among some of the most popular residents of the islands: the local seal colony.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 11

Fowey

Arrive in the Cornish port of Fowey (pronounced “Foy”) in the afternoon. Hike a Cornish coastal trail or enjoy a guided walk through the village of Fowey with a local. Alternatively, venture into the countryside to a family farm and see how traditional practices are being combined with contemporary development of local crops, and enjoy a tasting of their most recent “crop.”

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

■ DAY 12

Portsmouth / Disembark Ship

Disembark in Portsmouth and transfer to the airport for flights home. (Note: a pre-voyage extension to explore the Scottish Highlands is available.)

Meals included: breakfast

Southbound

Edinburgh, Scotland → Portsmouth, England

Built to handle deep swells and towering waves, the National Geographic Explorer lends herself to globe-spanning travel and a dedication to curiosity and wonder.

Originally constructed for service along Norway's coast as part of the famed Hurtigruten, or Coastal Express, she ferried passengers among the fjords of this iconic coast in conditions that could deteriorate into heavy seas in a matter of minutes. She had to be able to handle deep swells and towering waves—and have a high degree of maneuverability. Those traits, and an ideal size, made her a natural choice for addition to the Lindblad fleet.

The plans to completely rebuild her drew on 50 years of pioneering expedition history and expertise. National Geographic Explorer was equipped with an ice-strengthened hull and advanced navigation equipment for polar expeditions; a roster of tools for exploration; and a well-appointed interior with vast expanses of glass for an unprecedented connection to the environment. Her interior and exterior design embodied the Lindblad expedition ethos—the privilege of wildness and the luxury of comfort.

For many guests she remains their paradigm of an expedition ship. She is devoted to exploration—from her Welcoming Bridge, and the Chart Room below it where you can tuck in to warm up with a hot chocolate, to her high-perched Observation deck with its aqueous light and compelling 24/7 views. Even the art on the walls— from the Hurley prints of Shackleton’s expedition to the stunning National Geographic photos— tells an uber- narrative of globe-spanning travel and a dedication to curiosity and wonder.

National Geographic Explorer is a state-of-the-art expedition ship. She is a fully stabilized, ice-class vessel, with an ice-reinforced hull, enabling her to navigate polar passages while providing exceptional comfort.
