Day by day

■ DAY 1

Inverness / Kyle of Lochalsh / Embark Ship

Arrive in Inverness, the capital of the Scottish Highlands, and embark Lord of the Glens in Kyle of Lochalsh late this afternoon. Enjoy a reception and welcome dinner onboard, followed by a traditional Scottish music by local musicians.

Arrival Time: Arrive before 2:30 p.m. local time.

Arrival City: Inverness, Scotland

Meals included: dinner

◇ DAY 2

Kyle of Lochalsh / Armadale / Inverie

This morning, explore Kyle of Lochalsh, where you'll set out on a guided walk affording spectacular coastal and mountain views. Or explore Eilean Donan Castle, a one-of-a-kind landmark stacked on a tidal island at the confluence of three lochs. In Armadale this afternoon, visit the Museum of the Isles and trace the legacy of the 1,300-year-old Clan MacDonald—the Lords of the Isles who once ruled the west coast of Scotland. Survey the ruins of Armadale Castle, the MacDonald's ancestral home, and ramble through its beautiful woodlands and gardens. Back aboard Lord of the Glens, sail to the tiny village of Inverie where you'll stop at the community-owned and operated Old Forge, the most remote pub in the British Isles. Chat with Inverie's residents over a pint of local ale, or head out on a coastal or inland bog walk on which you'll have the opportunity to see highland horses.

Meals included: breakfast, dinner, lunch

◇ DAY 3

Inverie / Tobermory / Craginure

Depart for the picturesque town of Tobermory, a village established in 1788, which is famous for its brightly painted houses that line its waterfront. Along the way, cruise the coast along the Isle of Eigg, keeping an eye out for Atlantic seals, minke and humpback whales, dolphins, harbor porpoises and Manx shearwaters. After exploring the geological history of Tobermory and tasting its world-renowned whiskey, the ship will stop in Craginure for the night. Members of the local Hebridean Whale and Dolphin Trust (HWDT), a partner of National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions, will join you on board for the evening. The HWDT team is always thrilled to share their efforts to protect marine life in these waters, shedding light on citizen science opportunities during your voyage, and recounting why whales and dolphins have been so culturally significant in this region since the Iron Age.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 4

Isle of Mull / Iona / Oban

This morning, disembark for a drive across the Isle of Mull and ferry-crossing to Iona, a picturesque island long revered as a Christian pilgrimage site. Stroll through St. Oran's Chapel and the royal cemetery where Scottish kings—including the actual Macbeth—are buried. Back on Mull, tour Duart Castle, home and stronghold of Clan MacLean for the past eight centuries with the dungeons to prove it. Then, sail across the Sound of Mull to the bustling town of Oban, a lively town whose name is revered in whisky circles. Scope out the panoramic Oban Bay views from McCaig's Folly, a hilltop monument with inner gardens whose circular design and arches mimic the Colosseum. Aboard the ship this evening, enjoy a special, private whisky tasting of Oban Distillery's renowned scotch whisky.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 5

Corpach / Glenfinnan / Loch Linnhe

This morning, Lord of the Glens sails to Corpach, where she'll enter the Caledonian Canal, built between 1803 and 1822 to connect Loch Linnhe with the three other lochs that lie in the slip fault of the Great Glen. Opt for a drive to spectacularly scenic Glenfinnan, where the Jacobite rising began in 1745. Spend some time on the shores of Loch Shiel, where you'll see the Glenfinnan Monument, erected to commemorate the historic 18th century event, and the famous 21-arch viaduct constructed in 1898. Alternatively, kayak along peaceful Loch Linnhe with Britain's highest mountain, Ben Nevis, as your backdrop. The ship will moor at Corpach for the night.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 6

Laggan Locks / Fort Augustus

Start the day by ascending Neptune's Staircase, a set of eight interconnected locks rising 64 feet from Corpach's sea lock. Glide along the tree-lined canal known as Laggan Avenue, cross picturesque Lochs Lochy and Oich and descend an impressive flight of locks that run through the heart of Fort Augustus. This evening, the ship will moor at Fort Augustus village, where an evening hike or bike ride awaits.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

◇ DAY 7

Loch Ness / Culloden / Clava Cairns / Inverness

Traverse Loch Ness, steeped in monstrous legend, and cruise past the romantic ruins of Urquhart Castle—a Norman castle on an Iron Age site. Continue through Loch Dochfour to Inverness. This afternoon, visit Culloden, where Bonnie Prince Charlie's Jacobite forces met defeat in an infamous 1746 battle that had decisive consequences for life in the Highlands. See the Bronze Age standing stones and tombs of Clava Cairns. Tonight, enjoy a farewell dinner followed by traditional Scottish performances on board.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch, dinner

Life aboard Lord of the Glens feels like a cross between relaxing in a stately country manor and taking a voyage aboard a private yacht.

Lord of the Glens is a spectacularly unique ship. She was built for one purpose—to fit through the network of locks and canals that cut through the heart of the Scottish Highlands. So, she is the only ship of her kind that is able to offer a voyage through the Caledonian Canal, which connects the North Sea to the Atlantic and goes through the very heart of the Scottish Highlands. Add to that her ability to navigate the coastline and venture to the islands of the Inner Hebrides and you have the basis for a singularly unique and striking expedition.

Life aboard Lord of the Glens feels like a cross between relaxing in a stately country manor and taking a voyage aboard a private yacht with friends. It is the perfect way to explore the Scottish countryside. She is paneled in polished wood, with teak decks, offering gourmet cuisine, and exceptional personal service. Lord of the Glens is small enough to come alongside daily in charming locations and to moor overnight in small welcoming communities such as the fishing village of Inverie which, although on the Scottish mainland, has no access by road with any other community in Scotland.

The ship is outfitted with bicycles and even kayaks on Lindblad-National Geographic expeditions, allowing guests to pedal into these small towns and explore the countryside at a leisurely pace, or have a unique opportunity to kayak in Loch Ness.
